No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save!

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15, 1863.

The Union Meeting at Salem.

To-morrow evening, the citizens of Oregon, who love the Union, and rejoice in the victories which lately sent a thrill of patriotic delight through the land, are invited to meet for mutual congratulations and the expression of their firm and unyielding devotion to the cause of American liberty. We trust a large number of the people of the State will improve this opportunity to testify their fidelity to the institutions of liberty, their undying devotion to the freedom which makes us all free, and their determination to stand fast and forever by the Union of our fathers,—the Union, which is the pride and glory of this generation, and must be transmitted without weakness or severance to those who come after us. Let the united expression of our people attest their gratitude to the gallant and brave men who under Grant and Meade and Banks have won glorious success in the field—to the bold heroism which has reduced Sumter to a wreck, has inspired the anxious, expectant hope that Charleston will speedily be captured, to all the fearless deeds which make Americans everywhere, proud and justly proud of the American army and navy. We trust there will be a united and zealous endorsement of all measures that tend to the supremacy of the Government and its conquest of the rebellion—not because of any mere political triumph, for politics should now be forgotten, but only because in the name of the Union every loyal patriot can well afford to discard every consideration, which does not concern the life of the nation. To save this is object and duty enough for all—to labor for its salvation, is the sacred business of every lover of his country. To that work, let us all apply ourselves with all our heart and mind, and the strength of Oregon will be found where it always belongs, with the bannered and faithful hosts of freedom and under the flag of the Union, so long as it waves.

The Next Congress.

There has been much speculation is regard to the political complexion of the House of Representatives, and it has even been claimed that there would be a majority of members disposed to elect such a traitor as Fernando Wood to the important post of Speaker. The California election, however, resulting in the choice of three Union members, settles the question; every other State had previously chosen its representatives. According to the Union's figures, the House will stand as follows: "Conceding the Delaware member two Representatives from Maryland, eight from Kentucky and four from Missouri to the opposition, they will be able to muster just eighty-five votes—the ballance being made up by three from the New England States, eighteen from New York, thirteen from Pennsylvania, four from New Jersey, fourteen from Ohio, seven from Indiana, eight from Illinois, four from Missouri, one from Michigan and three from Wisconsin. The Administration strength, independent of the three votes from Maryland, three from West Virginia, two from Louisiana, and four or five from Tennessee, which there is reason to believe will be secured, will be 89—derived as follows: New England States 24, New York 13, Pennsylvania 11, New Jersey 2, Ohio 5, Indiana 4, Michigan 5, Illinois 6, Missouri 5, Kentucky 1—Green Clay Smith—Wisconsin 3, Iowa 6, Kansas 1, Oregon 1, California 3. This is enough to secure the organization of the House; the additional members from Maryland, West Virginia, Tennessee and Louisiana will make a reliable working majority. The policy of the National Administration will, therefore, be sustained to the end."

The Union adds that it is probable that the next Congress will be "according to precedent, a President making institution. The Copperheads having lost the political battle, and being unable to save the "Confederacy" from destruction, will endeavor to make a new issue; and, as they have no conscience in their partisan scheming, will probably agree to accept the Kentucky platform, with McClellan as their candidate. They will abandon their peace preaching solely for the sake of expediency, and try to persuade the nation to forget their traitorous conduct in the hour of public peril. They will assume to be the only true Union men, strive to represent the Administration as engaged in persecuting those immaculate patriots who, for years, have been engaged in an "irregular opposition" to the Government, and exhibit extraordinary zeal in ferreting out "corruption." On the other hand, the dominant party, having an eye also to the Presidency, will continually shake the record of the Copperheads before the people, triumphantly point to the defeat of dishonorable schemes of peace, and claim the credit of having conducted the nation victoriously through the most tremendous civil war of the century. The party struggles in the next Congress will undoubtedly be fierce, and the combinations for the Presidential contest will not take positive shape until the close of the session. So far as the Lincoln Administration is concerned, however, the leading features of its policy are sure of indorsement by a majority of both Houses."

Opinions Changed by Experience.

An officer in Rosecrans' department, who before the war was ultra in his conservative notions, has recently written the following letter, which, like hundreds of others from similar sources, proves how essentially opinions are modified by actual observation and experience. We commend its perusal to those who feel as the writer did two years ago, as the causes of his change of views may perhaps also have an influence upon them:

A service of nearly two years in the army of our country has taught me many things I deemed impossible before. Entering the army with strong prejudices, I was not easily changed; but the change that has occurred in my way of thinking has taken place with thousands in the army of the Union. Inventive faculty and courage were always denied the negro, and truly, perhaps, in many instances, but not from nature, from organization, but from the tide of circumstances. These faculties were dormant in the negro. No inviting breeze had fanned these faculties into flame of development. The negro had no incentive to action; but instead the knowledge that greater and yet greater burdens would be placed upon him. But now the negro has an incentive, the incentive of freedom, to actuate him, and he is disappointing the expectations of his most sanguine friends. Men with giant strength and sinews of wire, they have not known their strength. A short time since 1,500 passed through our camp fleeing from the bondage worse than death, and anxious to fight for their freedom.

After the conduct of the black troops in the Southwest, who will question their courage? Thus is another of the popular fallacies of the day exploded. Their morals will favorably compare with their white brothers, and cases of intemperance are not very frequent among them. They perform laborious duties, never complaining, but they do their duty with a will, relieving the white soldier in arms. A more friendly feeling is springing up between the negro and the soldier, and the latter no longer considers it a disgrace to labor with him in defense of our country—but ready to grasp any instrument that will assist in crushing treason and restoring law and order to our distracted land. Not so with it a year ago, when Buell commanded this army. The escaped slave was driven back to his master, to receive the lash for attempting to escape; the army was on the point of mutiny when negro assistance was even insinuated. How changed the present with the past! We now read rightly the tide of events—we mistake not their meaning.

No candid, unprejudiced man can spend a year in the army without vastly changing his ideas of "the institution." He will, unawares, soon find himself an anti-slavery man. Daily contact with "the institution" will effect this change. Oh, the sad tales to which I have listened from the unhappy victims of man's despotism and passion! They sadden, sicken the heart! Tales of families separated—of wives and daughters debauched—fathers and mothers and children torn away—escapes, captures and punishments, long years of longing for freedom! Tales that would fill volumes, and yet slavery has its defenders at the North—defenders in the Church of the "All Merciful and Just!" Shame, where is thy blush! But the clouds are parting; dawn is breaking; the day is near! This is not alone a revolution of arms, but a revolution of ideas—of principles. Desolation and extreme poverty marks this whole country. The people are tired of the war, and long for the dawn of peace.

Another Union Victory.—Nevada Territory has rolled up a good majority for the Union, the Government, and against Copperhead-Peace Democracy. The bright silver crown of our neighbor, which will soon be admitted into the sisterhood of States, remains untarnished, and reflects back the bright Union rays of the Golden State, undimmed by the gangrene of secession. The Pacific coast is true to the Government, and against secession and bogus Democracy, Burch-Street Cactus-Caesarean Pacific Republics, and all other hell-born treasonable conspiracies against the Union and the Government. Let California and Nevada shake hands across the line, and each rejoice with the other in the glorious victory. The silver stars of Nevada, and streakings of golden sunbeams of California, shall make the old banner of the Republic shine with renewed splendor, and wave more proudly over the loyal people of the Pacific coast. The land of the sunset sends greeting to the sunrise notes of cheer to gladden the hearts of the noble defenders of our common country.—Red Bluff Independent.

We join in that hallelujah, and assure our Southern neighbors that Oregon will, as often as opportunity offers, swell the Union chorus. Our people march and keep step to no other music than that which patriots sing, and joyfully hail all tidings of the success, and victory which the Union host by arms or votes wins over treason and secession.

Why Don't they make a Demonstration.—The Albany Democrat says the Union Mass Meeting at Salem has been called to take advantage of the innumerable crowd which will be present, and that it will be heralded as the sentiment of all, though a large portion will be Democrats who don't approve the war or its prosecution for the sake of the Union. We suppose that sort of people cannot be compelled to participate in the meeting against their wishes, and if they are to be so numerous as the Democrat supposes, why don't they also meet and express their sentiments? There will be time enough during the week, and room enough, and we should be glad to see and know who and how many there are, who are sympathizers with the rebellion and do not rejoice at the victories won by the armies of the Republic over treason and its attendant crimes and wickedness. Make your demonstration, and show if you can that the voice of Oregon is not in favor of the Union and its benefits and blessings.

Vallandigham.—There is a report in circulation, predicated, it is claimed, on good authority, that Vallandigham has been urged by his political friends to withdraw from the Gubernatorial canvass. This move has been superinduced, it is said, by the recent successes of the Northern arms, putting at naught the oft repeated assertions of the "Great Vanished," that the Government cannot put down the rebellion by force of arms.—Sacramento Union.

If this rumor be correct, the professed Union Democrats, who prefer Vallandigham to an Abolitionist, thereby agreeing according to old Henry, with the President and some of the Administration (very poor authority by the way) will have their choice taken away from them. Poor fellows, we pity them, but then they can go South, and vote and fight if there is any fight in them according to their wishes.

Military.—We understand that Colonel Steinberger will be in command of the regiment at Fort Walla Walla during the winter; Col. Maury at Fort Dalles, and Captain R. S. Caldwell at Fort Vancouver. Dr. Chase, Surgeon U. S. A., has been ordered to Fort Hoskins.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to September 8.

Memphis, Sept. 4.—The reported arriving of rebels across Bayou Meloe is confirmed. The rebels on the other side are strongly fortified and a big fight is contemplated. Gen. Price is in command. He is said to have 18,000 men and expecting to be reinforced by 6,000 men under Dick Taylor, and by Gen. Albert Pike with 7,000 Indians. Gen. Davidson's position is very strong. Many of his men are sick with chills and fever, but in this respect they are no worse off themselves. Two gunboats were recently sent to disperse guerrillas concentrated at Morganeza, La., had shelled the levee for two hours, compelling the guerrillas to abandon their position with a loss of 57 killed and wounded. A considerable force of guerrillas is reported concentrated at Tompkins who have planted two 12 pounders there. A gunboat has been sent to shell them off. The steamer Sallie Robinson was fired into a few days ago by guerrillas, below Red river. 10 soldiers on board were killed and 22 wounded.

Intelligent refugees from Columbus, Miss., who had been in service in the rebel Quartermaster's Department for the past two years, and who had more than ordinary opportunities for observation, has just reached here. They state that Johnston's losses average 70 men every night by desertion. His army is dispirited and demoralized. Those who have not deserted are only waiting an opportunity to do so. They heard that rebel officers estimated the number of troops between Columbus, Miss., and Corinth, at 7,000, all told. Regiments of Johnstons had been sent to Georgia, and 2 regiments recently came to Oakland to repel expected Yankee sent from Corinth. The meeting appointed by Unionists in the vicinity of Columbus, was suppressed by the military. There is a strong latent Union feeling among the inhabitants which is becoming more open and bold in its manifestations. People regard rebel troops as oppressors, and look anxiously for the advance of Yankees among them. The wheat crop throughout the county is good, and the Confederate Government is taking every 10th bushel for taxes.

A deserter from Bragg's army says rebel officers say they will have to give up all country north of Colsa river, St. Clair county which county is this deserters residence. The Union feeling is so strong that secessionists are not allowed to stay there. He confirms all reports of desertions from Bragg's army, and says 1,000 of them are rendezvoused in Washington county, armed and determined to resist rebel authority to the last. The rebels were conscripting negroes to build breatworks at Selina.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—The transport New Jersey arrived from off Charleston, with dates to the 3d inst. There was a general fight between the Ironsides and Forts Wagner and Moultrie. Much damage was seen to have been done to the forts by the fleet.

For the Oregonian.

Etymology of the Word Oregon.

Jonathan Carver, an English captain in the wars by which the Canadas came into the possession of Great Britain, after the peace, left Boston June 6th, 1766, crossed the continent to the Pacific, and returned October, 1768. In the relation of his travels, which were published in 1774, and republished in 1778, he is the first who makes use of the word Oregon. The origin of that word has never been discovered in the country. The first Catholic missionaries, Father Demers, now Bishop of Vancouver's Island, and Father Blanchet, now Archbishop of Oregon City, arrived in Oregon in 1838. They traveled through it, for many years, from south to north, from west to east, visiting and teaching the numerous tribes of Oregon, Washington Territory and British Possessions. But in all their various excursions among the Indians, they never succeeded in finding the origin of the word Oregon. Now, it appears that what could not be found in Oregon, has been discovered by Archbishop Blanchet, in Bolivia, when he visited that country, Chili and Peru, in 1856 and 1857. Since his return, Archbishop Blanchet, in many occasions, has communicated his discovery. Hence, perhaps the explanation given in the Weekly Mountaineer of the 4th and the Weekly Oregonian of the 5th inst. But as the former is altogether incorrect and the latter not satisfactory, the subscriber presumes it will be pleasing to many to have a correct record of the explanation. The word Oregon, in his opinion, most undoubtedly has its root in the Spanish word Orejo, ear; and came from the qualifying word Orejon, big ear. For it is probable that the Spaniards, who first discovered and visited the country, when they saw the Indians with big ears, enlarged by the load of ornaments, were naturally inclined to call them Orejon, big ears. That nickname, first given to the Indians, became also the name of the country. This explains how Capt. Carver got it and first made use of it. But the travelers, perhaps Carver himself, not knowing the Spanish language, nor the peculiar pronunciation of the j in Spanish, for facility sake, would have it written and pronounced Oregon, instead of Orejon, in changing j to g. Such, in all probability, must be the origin of the word Oregon. It comes from the Spanish word Orejon. This discovery is due, in justice to the learned Dr. George Haygarth, A. M., M. D., of London, a man well versed in the Spanish, whom the Archbishop met in La Paz, Bolivia. So much for the etymology of the word Oregon. This probability becomes a conviction when we consider how customary it is for travelers in a new country to give appropriate names, and how generally these names are received, retained, and pass to posterity. We have now few instances of this practice on the Pacific coast, and in Oregon in particular. Oregon was visited and traveled all through as early as 1811, and perhaps before, by a number of French Canadians. They freely used the right of travelers in giving the Indian tribes, rivers and localities, French names, which have been kept and used ever since, and which are with difficulty properly written and pronounced in English, if there be no due attention paid to their French extraction. Thus, some Indian tribes were called:

Les Nez Perces—the Pierced Noses.
Les Tetes Plates—the Flat Heads.
Les Pend' Oreilles—the Ear rings.
Les Chaudieres—the Kettle Falls (near Colville).
Les Coeurs d'Alene—the Pointed Hearts.
Les Serpents—the Snakes.

Some rivers were named:

La riviere des Chutes—the River of the Falls.
La Creole—the Creole: perhaps the name of a man—now, improperly written Rickreoll, in Yamhill county.

Some places were called:

Les Cascades—the Cascades.
Les Dales (not Dalles)—the Strait Canal.
Le Grand Rond—the Grand Round.

I beg leave to terminate my remarks in saying that when words and names of another tongue are kept and used, their orthography ought also to be strictly adhered to. Thus: the Spanish word, Cañon (a narrow place, a strait) ought to retain its proper feature; consequently it should not be written canyon, but cañon; because the Spanish n, with a bar over it, has the sound of go, as if it were written cagnon.

Portland, Sept. 10th, 1863.

Patriotism of an Illinois Democrat.

We read and hear great complaints of the suppression of free speech and one might suppose that no man was safe in uttering a question of the policy of the Government in any respect. Yet we see every day reports of democratic speeches, which give the fullest possible denial to any just ground for complaint. Here is an extract from one recently made at a Confederate picnic in Illinois, by Robert Davis of that State, who could not have said anything more treasonable if his name had been Jeff instead of Bob. Do Oregon democrats approve his doctrines, and if so, is any thing more needed to prove that modern democracy is only another name for treason?

Why is it that you are arming and drilling, and preparing for battle? Why are you here, with your revolvers buckled on, ready for the fight? It is because you are oppressed, persecuted and your dearest rights and liberties taken from you. Lincoln is a tyrant, has perverted the Government, has driven the South from the Union, has deluged the country in blood, and on the ruins of liberty and right has reared a most despicable despotism. All in authority under the President are only menial satraps of Abe Lincoln, the first Emperor of the United States. Lincoln is a perjured man. He took an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, but broke it by his emancipation proclamation; broke it by suspending the writ of habeas corpus; broke it by arbitrary arrests and imprisonment and the banishment of innocent men; broke it by declaring martial law in Kentucky, where no war existed, for the purpose of carrying elections by preventing democrats from voting—for which purpose he caused soldiers to take possession of the polls and allow no one to vote who would not take an oath that he was an unconditional Union man and would support the Administration; and broke it by trying to enforce a most odious "conscription" Act, in trying to drag three hundred thousand men into the abominable negro war against their will.

Lincoln has also flooded the country with a spurious currency—not money, but greenbacks. He has not only freed the negroes, given them arms, the right to fight in the United States service and hold non-commissioned offices, but he has made them equal to a white man by ordering that if a negro be sold into slavery after being taken prisoner from our ranks, a white man shall be made to labor on the public works during the war. If he is hung a white man shall be hung in retaliation. He has denied us free speech, suppressed our newspapers, and banished not only men but helpless women and children to the South for trivial offenses. After all the grievances of the last two years which we have protested against yet endured, he has come to the finishing stroke. He will drag from us 300,000 men, not to fight rebels, but to control elections, prevent democrats from voting, and establish a military despotism for the perpetuation of his power, whatever may be the voice of the people. Shall they have the 300,000 men?

The crowd shouted, "Never, never! Not a man!"

Never, nay, never go, but fight at home. Arm, drill and prepare; and when the draft comes you come with your rifles, shot-guns and revolvers; meet it at your doors and fight it to the death. It is unconstitutional and must be resisted, and though every Court in the United States should decide it constitutional, we know that it is not, and will resist it to the last man. Never be drafted! Sweep the country with destruction, cover it with dead men until every rivulet and stream flows with blood, rather than be drafted. [Applause.] We have one hundred thousand men armed and ready for the fight! Our enemies are also strong. We must not underrate them. They are arming and drilling to meet us. The struggle may be bloody; but if we are ready and brave, and true to ourselves, we must and will conquer. This tyrannical Government must and will be put down.

And to you abolitionists, you Union men, let me say: keep out of the way of the machine, for if you do not it will run straight over you. Let us alone; keep your mouths shut; tell no tales; let us and Old Abe fight it out, and you are all right. We will not hurt you. But you once go to giving information and dounding around Government officers, and you will come home to find your houses in ashes and yourselves full of bullets. And if you do not take steps to prevent the enforcement of the draft for every man who is dragged into the service one of you shall pay the penalty. The Abolitionists have mobbed us and torn up our printing presses. How did they feel when the New York mob tore up theirs? They have held the cup to us; now we will press it to their lips and make them drink it to the dregs—drink it until they fall dead.

U. S. Circuit and District Court.—The U. S. Circuit and District Court met yesterday and adjourned to the fourth Monday of this onth. The case of the United States vs. amman, indictment for detaining letters, me up, on several motions of the defendant; e of which was for a trial, and another for scharge. The motions were not allowed, d the cause was continued.

Officers Elect.—At a regular meeting of e Portland Guards, held last evening, the llowing persons were elected as officers: Captian, E. G. Randall. 1st Lieut., F. A. avis; 2d do., Mark A. King. Orderly rgent, H. L. Harmon. 1st Sargent, Chas. nder; 2d do., J. W. Going; 3d do., Ed. lling; 4th do., Chas. E. Perrin. 1st Corral Chas. Hodgkinson; 2d do., G. T. yers; 3d do., Theodore Minor; 4th do., ustavus Campbell.

Admitted.—On Thursday last Messrs. Eu. e Sullivan and Leopold Wolf were admitto practice in the Supreme Court, in this te.

Treasure.—Wells, Fargo & Co. brought on last evening on the steamer Julia $40,-0 in gold dust. There was also a large ount in the hands of passengers.

Discharged.—Frederick Merchant, who illed Robert Douglas on Saturday last, had examination before the Recorder yesterday ning, and was discharged. The facts ited in the evidence were substantially the me as previously stated.

State Fair.—Many of our citizens, who ere to have started for the Fair grounds yesrday, postponed the trip on account of the d weather. Should the rain cease, hower, quite a number will start up to-morrow.

Wrong.—Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped $130,-0 per steamer Sierra Nevada, on Saturday instead of $30,000, as stated in our issue yesterday.

Theatrical.—A large and appreciative audnce were in attendance at the theatre last ning to witness Julia Dean Hayne's renring of her great character of "Griseldis." er acting throughout was faultless. The trionic powers of this lady never shown th with greater brilliancy and strength n was displayed in her acting last night. e was ably supported, too, by the entire pany. Our citizens will be pleased to ro that to-night will be produced the play the "Hunchback," in which Julia Dean ayne will personate her favorite character Julia, and Mr. Waldron will appear as Mas Walter; Sir Thos. Clifford, P. Thayer; dus, B. S. Mortimer; Helen, Mrs. Walon; Stephen, Miss Gillespie, and other aracters by the company. A favorite farce ll conclude the performance.

D. F. Harrington.—D. F. Harrington, 91 rst street, has just received a large supply groceries and provisions. See advertisement.

Southern Notes for Northern Study.—e following extracts from rebel authorities e good antidotes for Copperhead poison:

The election of Lincoln was not the cause secession. Disunion has been a cherished ject for the last thirty years.—Gov. Rhett, South Carolina.

If a blank page of paper was offered we uld not write out terms of Union.—Secesn Commissioners of Richmond to Mr. Max of Baltimore.

The South now maintain that slavery, black white, is fit for the laboring man.—Richd Enquirer.

We are the gentlemen of this country, and tleman always make revolutions.—Senator ombs, of Georgia.

I will water my horse in the Ohio or hell.—uregard.

A Southern lady, with a riding whip alone, disperse a crowd of cowardly Northern olitionists.—Richmond Examiner.

Oregonian:

In your paper of this morning you state that "steamer Oneonta burst one of her boilers hile at the landing at the Upper Cascades, Friday last." You have been wrongly inmed in reference to the stopping of the Oneonta. On firing up for her return trip on day, a slight defect was discovered in one her boilers, and it was deemed best not to e her out, and the Iris was sent for. The lers of the Oneonta had been tested this mer by the Surpervising Inspector, and nd to be fully equal to the amount of steam uired to be carried. The item, as you state gives a wrong impression to the public, hich I desire to correct.

Day and Night.

When early morning lifted her sweet head
From o'er the hill tops blushing rosy red,
While through the eternal portal of the day
The sun resplendent flung his cheering ray;
And 'neath the forest's great [illegible] shade
The golden beams with quivering lustre played,
Sweet scented [illegible] to their slumber woke
And bird's soft [illegible] the deep silence broke.

Then midst the dewy and balm-breathing grove,
Beside me wandered [illegible] bright-eyed love,
Round her soft limbs the clustering tendrils twine,
To kiss her cheek bends the [illegible] eglantine;
The yellow primrose [illegible] her feet
And low toned winds all filled with odors sweet,
Breathe round [illegible] through the [illegible] dell,
Gathering fresh sweetness from my Bonnybell.

Yet dearer still when [illegible] twilight lours
Before the silent and swift-footed hours,
Which darkeyed Night, decked in her starry crown,
Brings in her train to chase the sunbeams down.
Then 'neath the darkness close entwined we stray
And whisper softly happy hours away.
In day or night thus bound [illegible] dearer charms,
As day or night still brought her to my arms.

Oh days too blissful, skies so softly blue,
Oh nights of loving, how I long for you!
How when day's glories Eastern hills adorn,
Pant I for her who made my spirit's morn.
And when the sleepless watches of the night
Look down upon us girt in armor bright,
How do I sigh for her, alas in vain,
And sleep in tears to wake in tears again.

Daniel O'Connel on Southern Slavery.

The Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph of August 5th, publishes the famous letter of Daniel O'Connell to a Committee of citizens in that place, who rebuked him for his anti-slavery opinions. The document was concealed for twenty years by a well-known Democrat, who at length gave it to the Telegraph. The following is the conclusion of the letter.

You tell us, indeed, that many clergymen, and especially the Catholic clergy, are ranged on the side of the slaveholders. We do not believe your accusation.

The Catholic clergy may endure, but they assuredly do not encourage the slaveowners. We have, indeed, heard it said that some Catholic clergymen have slaves of their own; but it is added, and we are assured positively, that no Irish Catholic clergyman is a slaveowner. At all events, every Catholic knows how distinctly slave-trading is condemned by the Catholic Church. That most eminent man, his Holiness, the present Pope has, by an Allocusion published throughout the world, condemned all dealing and traffic in slaves. Nothing can be more distinct nor more powerful than the Pope's denunciation of that most abominable crime. Yet it subsists in a more abominable form than his Holiness could possibly describe, in the traffic which still exists in the sale of slaves from one State in America to another. What, then, are we to think of you, Irish Catholics, who send us an elaborate vindication of slavery, without the slightest censure of that hatful crime?—a crime which the Pope has so completely condemned—namely, the diabolical raising of slaves for sale, and selling them to other States.

If you be Catholics, you should devote your time and best exertions to working out the pious intentions of his Holiness! Yet you prefer—O sorrow and shame!—to volunteer your vindication of everything that belongs to the guilt of slavery.

If you be Christians at all, recollect that slavery is opposed to the first, the highest and the greatest principles of Christianity, which teach us "to love the great and good God above all things whatsoever;" and the next "to love our fellow-man as ourselves;" which commands us "to do unto others as we would be done by." These sacred principles are inconsistent with the horrors and crimes of slavery; sacred principles which have already banished domestic bondage from civilized Europe, and which will also, in God's time, banish it from America, despite the advocacy of such puny declaimers as you are.

How bitterly have we been afflicted at perceiving by the American newspapers that recently in the city which you inhabit an opportunity was given to the Irish to exhibit benevolence and humanity to a colored fellow-creature, and was given in vain! We allude to the case of the girl Lavinia, who was a slave in another State and brought by her owner into that of Ohio. She by that became entitled to her freedom, if she had but one friend to assert it for her. She did find friends—may the great God of Heaven bless them! Were they Irish? Alas! alas! not one. You sneer at the sectaries. Behold how they here conquer you in goodness and charity. The owner's name, it seems, was Scanlan; unhappily a thoroughly Irish name. And he, it appears, has boasted that he took his revenge by the most fiendish cruelty, not upon Lavinia or her protectors, for they were not in his power, but upon her unoffending father, mother and family.

And this is the system which you, Irishmen, through many folio pages of wicked declamation, seek at least to palliate, if not to justify. Our cheeks burn with shame to think that such a monster as Scanlan could trace his pedigree to Ireland. And yet you, Irishmen, stand by rather in the attitude of friends and supporters, than of impugners of the monstrous cruelty. And you prefer to string together pages of cruel and heartless sophistry in defense of the source of his crime, rather than take part against him.

Perhaps it would offend your fastidiousness if such a man were compared to a pick-pocket or a felon. We respect your prejudices, and call him no reproachful name. It is, indeed, unnecessary.

We conclude by conjuring you and all other Irishmen in America, in the name of your fatherland—in the name of humanity—we conjure you, Irishmen and descendants of Irishmen, to abandon forever all defense of the hideous negro slavery system. Let it no more be said that your feelings are made so obtuse by the ail of America that you cannot feel us. Catholics and Christians ought to feel this truth—this plain truth—that one man cannot have any property in another man. There is not one of you who does not recognize that principle in his own person. Yet we perceive—and this agonizes us almost to madness—that you, boasting an Irish descent, should without the instigation of any pecuniary or interesting motive, but out of the sheer and single love of wickedness and crime come forward as the volunteer defenders of the most degrading species of human slavery. Woe! Woe! Woe!

There is one consolation still amid the pulsations of our hearts. There are, there must be, genuine Irishmen in America—men of sound heads and Irish hearts, who will assist us to wipe off the foul stain Lord Morpeth's proven charge has inflicted on the Irish character—who will hold out the hand of fellowship with a heart in that hand, to every honest man of every caste and color—who will sustain the cause of humanity and honor, and scorn the paltry advocates of slavery—who will show that the Irish heart is in America as benevolent and as replete with charitable emotions as in any other clime on the face of the earth.

We conclude. The spirit of Democratic liberty is defiled by the continuance of negro slavery in the United States. The United States, themselves, are degraded below the most uncivilized nations by the atrocious inconsistency of talking of liberty and practicing tyranny in its worst shape. The Americans attempt to palliate their iniquity by the futile excuse of personal interest; but the Irish, who have not even that futile excuse, and yet justify slavery, are utterly indefensible.

Once again—and for the last time—we call upon you to come out of the councils of the slave owners, and at all events to free yourselves from participating in their guilt.

Irishmen, I call you to join in crushing slavery, and in giving liberty to every man of every caste, creed or color. Signed by order.

DANIEL O'CONNELL,
Chairman of the Committee.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Third Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 44.]

AN ACT to prevent correspondence with rebels.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That if any person, being a resident of the United States, or being a citizen thereof, and residing in any foreign country, shall, without the permission or authority of the Government of the United States, and with the intent to defeat the measures of the said Government, or to weaken in any way their efficacy, hold or commence, directly or indirectly, any correspondence or intercourse, written or verbal, with the present pretended rebel Government, or with any officer or agent thereof, or with any other individual acting or sympathizing therewith, or if any such person above mentioned, not duly authorized, shall counsel or assist in any such correspondence or intercourse, with intent as aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, on conviction before any court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and by imprisonment not less than six months nor exceeding five years.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That where the offence is committed in any foreign country, the district court of the United States for the district where the offender shall be first arrested shall have jurisdiction thereof.

Approved, February 25, 1863.

[PUBLIC—No. 45.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to prevent members of Congress and officers of the Government of the United States from taking consideration for procuring contracts, office, or place from the United States, and for other purposes."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of said act shall be so construed as to embrace any agent of the Government of the United States.

Approved, February 25, 1863.

[PUBLIC—No. 47.]

AN ACT to authorize an increase in the number of major generals and brigadier generals for forces in the service of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in addition to the four major generals and nine brigadier generals for the regular army, and the forty major generals and two hundred brigadier generals for the volunteer service, authorized by the existing laws, there may be appointed thirty major generals and seventy-five brigadier generals for forces in the service of the United States other than the regular army: Provided, That the officers to be appointed under this act shall be selected from those who have been conspicuous for gallant or meritorious conduct in the line of duty.

Approved March 2, 1863

[PUBLIC—No. 48.]

AN ACT to fix the terms of the Circuit and District Courts in the districts of Wisconsin and Iowa.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That instead of the times heretofore fixed by law, the Circuit Court of the United States for the district of Wisconsin (after the January term, eighteen hundred and sixty-three) shall be held as follows: At Milwaukee on the third Monday in April and first Monday in July, and at Madison on the second Monday in November; and all writs, suits, pleas, recognizances, indictments, or other proceedings, civil or criminal, issued, commenced, or pending in said court, shall be returnable to, be entered, and have day in court, and be heard and tried according to the provisions of this act.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That instead of the times heretofore provided by law, the terms of the circuit and district courts for the district of Iowa, to be held at Des Moines, shall be held on the second Tuesday of May and third Tuesday in October in each year, and the fall term of the district court for said district, to be held at Dubuque, shall be held on the third Tuesday in November.

Approved, March 2, 1863.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory,	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the	Muscular System,
Hot Hands,	Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin.	Eruptions on the Face,
	Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS.

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,

once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine,

to strengthen and invigorate the system, which invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

FEMALES! FEMALES!! FEMALES!!

OLD OR YOUNG,

HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

CURES SECRET DISEASES,

In all their Stages: At Little Expense;
Little or no Change in Diet; No inconvenience,

AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby Removing Obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in the class of Diseases, and expelling all Poisonous, diseased and worn-out matter.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS

Who have been the victims of Quacks

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

For all Affections and Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and

NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic,

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in Diseases for which it is recommended.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul

PITTSBURG, PA.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of

Bilious Disorders and Liver Co

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON,

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,
ALONZO BALL, M.D., Physician of the POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN,

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours,

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PEC

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
